SERGT. LOUIS LEWIS

HAPPY TO BE HOME AFTER SERVICE WITH ANTI-AIRCRAFT BATTALION

Sergeant Louis A. Lewis blew in yesterday, the happiest released soldier you ever saw. He has been with the Anti-Aircraft forces at Montmorency, near Paris, and did not get into the fighting at all, but says he has seen all he wants to see of war, that we in America can have no conception of the suffering in France where there is not a family which has not lost some loved one, and where the country has been devastated. The American soldiers, he said, were disappointed when the armistice was signed because they wanted a chance to enter Germany and show the Huns what war would mean in their own country, but the French had suffered so much they were willing to have it end then. Sergeant Lewis says he thinks a vacation of two or three weeks is coming to him and he hasn't begun to think yet of what he will do in the way of business. He was with the Ford Agency at the time he enlisted.

WELCOME HOME BANNERS

Very handsome banners welcoming our returning soldiers and sailors have been prepared by the Glendale Red Cross Chapter and will be hung at central points by the Greater Glendale Development Association in co-operation with men from the Police Department of the city. The banners were lettered and decorated by Jacob Fink, who is a genius in that line. They are, of course, white with a red border and are as suitable as they are creditable. They are to be placed Thursday, if all goes well.

D. A. R. MEETING

The Richard Gridley Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will be entertained at the home of the regent, Mrs. John Hyde Braly, on Brand boulevard, Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The hostess is requesting all members to advise her whether they will be present or not and is also asking them to bring gifts of canned fruit, jellies or jams to be donated to the Maternity Hospital in Los Angeles, where there is great need of fruit at this time. Mrs. Braly promises a pleasant surprise for the program and other features which will make it a notable meeting.

600 DOGS IN GLENDALE

City Clerk J. C. Sherer reports that dog licenses are being paid up rapidly. According to figures in his possession, there are more than 600 canines of 57 varieties loose in this city at present. He states that no dog is exempt from the $2.00 tax.

THE ORANGE SHOW

BIG CITRUS EXHIBIT TO OPEN AT SAN BERNARDINO NEXT WEEK

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 5.—Rapid progress is being made on the construction of the Ninth National Orange Show, the doors of which open Friday night, Feb. 14th, next week and continue open for nine days and nights, until Feb. 23d.

Two Sundays and one holiday, Washington's birthday, fall during the exposition period, and General Manager F. M. Renfro is expecting a record breaking attendance.

The big tents are in place and a big crew of carpenters and workmen are hurrying the construction to be ready for the arrival of approximately 1,000,000 oranges that will be used in the exposition.

The pageant of victory and peace, with which the citrus fruit growers of California are to pay tribute to the successful conclusion of the war, is now being rehearsed. Eighty of the most beautiful maidens and matrons of Southern California are to participate. Then central figures will be Mrs. J. O. Gossett of Riverside, princess of peace; Miss Katherine Shultz of Santa Ana, princess of victory; and Miss Freda Oehl of San Bernardino, spirit of democracy.

There will be an elaborate musical program, including seven bands and vaudeville.

Exhibits for the industrial and automobile departments are now arriving, and shows for the midway are putting in appearance.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Thursday. Heavy frost in the morning.

WORK STARTS SOON ON BRIDGE, FLOOD CONTROL

Engineer Brown from the flood control department of the Los Angeles County Engineer's office was conferring with City Manager T. W. Watson this morning in regard to starting work at once on the Verdugo wash protection and bridge at the Brand boulevard crossing over the wash. Appropriations of $20,000 for flood control and $20,000 for a new bridge are at the disposal of the authorities.

SESSION ADJOURNS

GREATER GLENDALE DEVELOPMENT MEETING GIVES WAY TO HOBSON LECTURE

The Greater Glendale Development Association meeting which was to have been held at the Victor cafe room last night was considered an adjourned affair by the half-dozen members who congregated at the meeting place previous to attending the Richmond Pearson Hobson lecture at the First Methodist Church.

On next Tuesday night, however, a mass meeting will be held in the Glendale Union High School auditorium at which time Assemblyman John Robert White and City Attorney W. E. Evans will address Glendale people on "The State Legislature" and "The Telephone Situation," respectively.

BICYCLE STOLEN

Elmo Brice, of 304 North Kenwood street, had a new Indian bicycle that his parents gave him for a Xmas present, stolen from the basement of the Columbus Avenue School, Tuesday morning, about 11 o'clock. A lady residing near the school saw a man apparently about 25 years old, fairly well dressed, riding away on the wheel. The theft was promptly reported to the police. His parents declare the schools should furnish better protection for the children's bicycles against such sneak thieves.

IOWANS ENTERTAINED

MARSHALLTOWN REUNION AT HOME OF MRS. ARCHIE PARKER

As another proof that all your old friends back east will come to you in California if you stay here long enough, Mrs. Archie Parker tells of a club of congenial women who were banded together in the bonds of friendship in Marshalltown, Iowa, when she was a resident of that city, and how one after another of the members have drifted this way. Two who still reside in Marshalltown are spending the winter in Southern California and last week Mrs. Parker entertained with a luncheon in their honor. Covers were laid for thirteen, all of whom except the special guests now live in Southern California. None of them are superstitious, Mrs. Parker says.

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD" AT THE PALACE GRAND

Robert Jensen has again demonstrated that he considers the best none too good for Glendale. Today and tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, he is putting upon the screen of the Palace Grand "Hearts of the World" for a two-day engagement. Knowing that there will be a big call for tickets he has reserved the two days because there are twelve acts which require two and a half hours to show. There will be a matinee each afternoon at 3 o'clock and but one show on each of the two evenings, the doors opening at 7:30 p. m. This is the biggest picture Griffith has produced since America entered the war, and Glendale is exceedingly fortunate to have the opportunity to see it at home.

NOT GUILTY

The hearing of the case of R. Toehke, a vineyardist residing in the vicinity of La Crescenta, took place this morning before Justice Harry Miller. He had been charged with assault with a deadly weapon. After the representatives of the District Attorney's office had presented their case, the attorney for the defendant, Albert G. Pearce of this city, moved that the action against his client be dismissed and Judge Miller sustained the motion, there being no evidence to sustain the charges.

CHIEF PROBLEM OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

THE METHOD BY WHICH IT WILL ENFORCE ITS ORDERS UNDER CONSIDERATION BY DELEGATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Feb. 5.—The peace delegates today began work on their most difficult problem, that of deciding how the league of nations will enforce its orders.

Opinion is divided as to whether the force which the league will use is to be physical or merely moral. Many plans have been submitted, ranging from complete abolition of armament to the organization of an international navy and military police. It is believed that most of the delegates favor the plan of having each nation maintain a portion of its armament, the league of nations to decide how much. Under this plan each country would be allowed to raise its army by conscription or by volunteer system, as it saw fit. The United States and England, it is believed, would depend on volunteers.

The belief here is that the plan would require the United States and England to maintain armies of approximately the same strength as in 1914.

TO ADVOCATE PROGRESSIVE PROGRAM

WILL BE HELD INFORMALLY AND DEAL WITH MARKET CONDITIONS AND PRICES

LEAGUE'S CONSTITUTION PROGRESSES

PREAMBLE AND FIRST TWO CLAUSES AGREED UPON BY PEACE CONFERENCE DELEGATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Feb. 5.—It was officially announced today that the committee of the league of nations has agreed on the preamble and first two clauses of the league's constitution. Satisfactory progress is being made on other portions. The contents of the articles agreed upon have not been revealed.

EUROPE WANTS THIS NATION TO SHARE BURDEN OF REHABILITATING SMALL NATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Feb. 5.—The impression is growing here that the United States must assume the role of godfather to many small countries if the league of nations succeeds. The larger nations, as well as the smaller, are beginning to consider the United States as the one nation in a position to dictate policies regarding at least some of the territory without arousing jealousy.

President Wilson considers that his greatest task will be to convince the people of the United States that they must share the responsibility and expense of aiding small nations.

Great Britain, Italy and France refuse to assume the whole burden of rehabilitating Europe, and the war-stricken countries have placed the matter squarely before the United States through appeals for aid from Constantinople and Armenia.

The President is expected to outline the situation in detail when he returns to the United States, either in an address to Congress or direct speeches to the people, or by both methods.

BLOCKADE OF PORTS OF PORTUGAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Madrid, Feb. 5.—Portugal today proclaimed a blockade of all ports between Aviero and Commines. The monarchical government also has closed the port of Oporto.

DEMONSTRATION PHYSICAL EDUCATION HERE FRIDAY

Sixty visiting teachers from adjoining communities will congregate in Glendale Friday for a demonstration of physical education conducted by the assistant director of physical education of the state. The first four grades' work will be done at the Sixth street school in the morning and physical education as taught in the upper classes will be shown at the Intermediate school in the afternoon.

FAREWELL PARTY

FRIENDS BID GOOD-BYE TO MRS. WEAVER ON EVE OF HER DEPARTURE

About twenty-five friends of Mrs. A. L. Weaver, many of them members of Chapter B. A. of the P. E. O. to which she belonged, called at the home of Mrs. Archie Parker at 133 North Louise street Tuesday afternoon between four and five o'clock to bid her good-bye. Many brought contributions for the lunch which the Chapter asked the privilege of preparing for her journey. The quarantine on the home of M. L. Weaver was lifted Monday and the young widow decided it would be best to go to the home of her parents in Syracuse, New York. She left this morning at 10 a. m., accompanied by the nurse who has been assisting in the care of Mrs. M. L. Weaver and who will remain with her until she reaches Chicago, where she will be joined by her sister.

Mrs. Weaver is much beloved by a large circle of friends in the Tuesday Afternoon Club and in the P. E. O. by whom she will be much missed, but their good wishes and affection will follow her.

A MASONIC RING

STRANGE TALE OF ITS LOSS AND RETURN FROM BATTLE-FIELDS OF FRANCE

Mrs. John H. Ireland of 211 Milford street, is just in receipt of a letter from a friend in Lebanon, Conn., who lost a son in the war, telling of the wonderful return to her of a ring which he wore into the battle in which he gave his life. It had been stripped from his dead hand by a ghoulish Hun, who, in his turn, perished. The story in detail was published in the Norwich Bulletin from which the following account is taken:

"How a Masonic ring given by the late Joseph P. Abel to the late Irving N. Gifford of this city, long custodian at the Masonic temple and worn by Lieut. Louis Raymond Abel of Lebanon when he was killed in action on Sept. 27th, was brought back to this country by a Masonic brother of Braddock, Pa., is told in the New York Masonic Standard of Dec. 28th. 'The Standard gives the story as follows:

"A 32nd degree Masonic ring of tragic history which formerly belonged to Brother Joseph P. Abel, was taken from the finger of a dead German on the Argonne front last October 4th. In all probability it had been stolen by the German. The ring is in the possession of Brother Andrew Wilson of Braddock, Pa. He saw one of his companions remove the ring, and as he was a Mason, obtained possession of it.

"It is a 32d degree solid gold ring bearing the inscription on the inside, 'From Joseph P. Abel Feb. 27th 1888 to Irving N. Gifford. Quid virtus junxit mora non separabit.'

"Brother Abel is well known in this city. He was born in Brooklyn in 1852 and raised in Sutta lodge in 1876 and was Master in 1882-1883. He was Commander of Clinton Commandery 1893, belong to Constellation Chapter, was Master of Aurora Grata Council of Princes in 1883-1885, of Crowned 33rd in 1887 and was assistant Grand Secretary General of the Supreme Council for 7 years.

"He spent his last years in Lebanon, Conn., dying in 1908.

"After Mr. Gifford's death the ring was returned by Mrs. Gifford to Mrs. Joseph P. Abel, who passed it on to her son, Louis Raymond Abel, who was a 32d degree Mason.

"Since Louis Raymond Abel was killed in battle on the Argonne front Sept. 27th, the ring was no doubt taken by the German from his dead body and later in the battle that German was killed and the ring recovered by Mr. Wilson of Braddock, Pa.

WORLD PROHIBITION

CAPTAIN HOBSON PROVES TO LARGE AUDIENCE ITS POSSIBILITY AND NECESSITY

A splendid audience which filled the First Methodist Church auditorium gathered to hear Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson talk on "World Prohibition."

The meeting was called to order by Rev. Charles H. Scott, pastor of the church, who voiced the general satisfaction and gratitude felt by the nation and especially by the workers in the prohibition campaign over the ratification of the national amendment, and then introduced the speaker.

Captain Hobson feels that now, when the nations are assembled in conference, is the psychological time to move for world prohibition, and that without world prohibition the inhibition of liquor in the United States will always be in danger. He traced the course of older civilizations showing that alcohol has always cursed mankind but that there were periods when prohibition was in effect for centuries with both Greece and Rome and that those were the periods of their great accomplishments; that they were surrounded by countries which were not temperate, that it finally was restored to favor and the decline set in. Had it not been for liquor with all its attendant evils he believed Rome and Greece would still be the great nations they once were. For those reasons he argues alcohol must be banished from the world. Prohibition can never be thoroughly effective so long as it exists anywhere.

He described the effect of alcohol on the brain and made it the cause of all forms of degeneracy because of its lowering of the mental powers, also showed how powerful a poison it is, that five ounces or one tumblerful is a deadly dose from which man has never been known to recover; that alcoholism indulged in for four generations results in sterility. War, he considers an evidence of degeneracy. "Where in nature will you find individuals of the same species killing each other except in man, the only species which uses alcohol?" he inquired. Reconstruction demands a return to harmony with nature and that will be impossible, he believes, until we get rid of this disease of the race, alcoholism. He quoted the great law givers of the past, Zoroaster, Confucius, Buddha, Mohammed, Moses and Aaron, Pythagoras, Plato, Lycurgus, as all recognizing the curse of liquor.

The desire of leaders in this movement to present it to the peace conference that it might be incorporated in the league of nations was set forth and the refusal of permission to there appear although the Bolsheviks were to be given audience. Passports, he declared, had been refused to the national president of the W. C. T. U. and other leaders in the campaign when they sought to go to Paris. The peace conference had es-

LITERARY SECTION

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB LADIES BEGIN THE STUDY OF FRANCE

The regular meeting of the Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held at the home of Mrs. Bartlett, Feb. 4th. An exhaustive study of France was commenced. The topography of the country was sketched by Mrs. Goldthwaite, the history was given by Mrs. Albert Pearce, showing the radical decline of government by kings and queens, to the present republic, under the diplomatic leadership, of Poincare. The principal cities were next presented by Mrs. Hutchinson: Amiens with its extensive manufactures; Rheims, whose wonderful cathedral is now a ruin; Verdun and Lyons with fortifications; Bordeaux and Marseilles and Fontainebleau with palaces of centuries old; Paris, beautiful for situation, wonderful as an art centre, fortified for defense, the queen city of France. Informal talks by Mrs. Willisford and Mrs. Pack, who had visited these cities, added a personal charm to the meeting.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL MEETING

The N. P. Banks Post and Woman's Relief Corps will hold a joint meeting Sunday at 2 o'clock in G. A. R. Hall on Glendale avenue to honor the memory of Theodore Roosevelt. Comrade Robert Taylor is arranging the program.

COMMENT OF THE COUNTRYSIDE

Once again the steam grading roller is puffing about Glendale's business streets. Once again a pavement is to be laid. This time it is the far-east end of Broadway that is being improved. A continuous pavement from Eagle Rock Road and Colorado Boulevard to Broadway and San Fernando Road, via Broadway, is the plan.

Glendale and vicinity is a favored place for the manufacture of motion pictures. Two companies are actually actively engaged here and still others are often coming to this city to "borrow" an occasional location. An effort should be made to secure several more of the substantial film companies.

Residents of Glendale, who have resided here five or more years, will read with interest the news that the Verdugo Wash channel has been improved, cleared of underbrush, and eucalypti trees grown along the banks to forestall further floods.

One of the most sensible announcements seen in school news recently is that of the policy of Glendale Union High School in which the influenza's effect on students' work is considered. It is stated that where students have been hampered in their work by reason of the influenza epidemic, the school authorities will make the best adjustment possible and encourage the student to make up the deficiency. This will be encouragement to many to remain in school.

CONVICTION OF HENRY ALBERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Portland, Oregon, Feb. 5.—Henry Albers, wealthy miller of Portland, today was convicted on two counts of making seditious utterances. The verdict was returned at 10 o'clock this morning.

WORLD LEAGUE IS CONGRESS TOPIC

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The question, "What kind of a League of Nations?" is under discussion here today at the Atlantic Congress for a League of Nations, under auspices of the League to Enforce Peace.

The congress, which opened this morning in the ballroom of Hotel Astor, is the first of a series of nine conventions to be held successively in as many American cities.

Delegates to the Atlantic congress were appointed by state governors, and by more than 100 chambers of commerce, rotary clubs, churches, and other organizations in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia.

The speakers scheduled for the Atlantic congress will address the other conventions, too. They include W. H. Taft, head of the League; Jas. W. Gerard, formerly ambassador to Germany; Dr. Henry van Dyke, formerly minister to Holland; Frank P. Walsh, who was joint chairman with Mr. Taft of the National war labor board; A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard University; George Grafton Wilson, professor of International law at Harvard, and Edward A. Filene of Boston, director of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The congress here will close tomorrow night with a mass meeting, which will adopt resolutions to be cabled to the Paris peace conference and sent to the United States senate and house of representatives.

The same procedure is laid down for the other eight Congresses, which will follow in close order. The keynote of the gatherings will be the necessity of showing foreign delegates to the peace conference that the people of the United States are behind President Wilson in his efforts to establish a strong, workable League of Nations.

At each of the other eight Congresses, the National staff of speakers will be augmented by prominent leaders from the other groups of states represented. The second Congress will open in Boston, Feb. 1st. It will be known as the New England Congress. Each Congress will last two days. The other dates follow: Great Lakes Congress, Chicago, Feb. 10th and 11th; Northern, Minneapolis,

Feb. 12th and 13th; Northwest, Portland, Ore., Feb. 16th and 17th; Pacific Coast, San Francisco, Feb. 19th and 20th; Mountain States, Salt Lake City, Feb. 21st and 22d; Mid-Continent, St. Louis, Feb. 25th and 26th, and Southern, Atlanta, Feb. 28th and March 1st.

"THE ROYAL LAW OR LOVE"

The lecture delivered by Dr. Frank L. Riley at the New Thought center at Masonic Temple Sunday, February 2d, was prefaced by selections read from the first and second volumes of the Mahabharata, the Hindu epic poem.

In part, Dr. Riley said:

"It will be seen in the world that anger is the cause of destruction of every creature. The man who is angry faileth to distinguish between what should be said and what should not. From anger, a man may slay one that deserveth not to be slain, and may worship one that deserveth to be slain. Beholding all these faults, the wise control their anger. The wise are always contented and the foolish always discontented.

"With those that are good, truth is always a duty, indeed. Truth is an eternal duty. One should reverentially bow unto truth. Truth is the highest refuge of all. Truth is duty. Truth is penance. Truth is yogo (or balance). Truth is the eternal Brahma (or God). Truth has been said to be sacrifice of a high order. Everything rests upon Truth. The forms that truth assume are impartiality, self-control, forgiveness, modesty, endurance, goodness, renunciation, contemplation, dignity, fortitude, compassion and abstinence from injury. Truth is immutable, eternal and unchangeable. One comes to acquire universal good will by constant devotion to truth. There is no duty higher than truth and no sin more heinous than untruth. Indeed, truth is the very foundation of righteousness. Following silent prayer was the discourse on "The Royal Law of Love," or divine love, in connection with metaphysical or divine healing. A few paragraphs from the lecture are herein given:

"As long as we live, our material needs must be recognized, but a knowledge of our spiritual needs must also be recognized. Drugs help temporarily, but they will not heal an aching heart, a troubled mind, or a guilty conscience. They will carry to a certain point, but the effect is not lasting. It is not wicked to take drugs, and we must not condemn others for so doing, for we never know when we may need them. Man is not perfect, and we must never judge others for we never know when we may fall. Instead of condemning a brother, we must lift him out of the ditch. There is a difference between drugs and food. There are sixteen elements in our bodies and all must be replenished with like, proper elements found in all nature. We obtain these elements from food. Iron is found in carrots and spinach, so in different foods will be found necessary elements to meet the demands of the body. Deep breathing, bathing, fresh air and exercise are essential to a healthy body. Where there is action there is life; where there is no action there is death. The mind must also be active and in tune; thus we have a healthy body.

"The healthy body is an expression or manifestation of God's power. The kingdom of heaven is within you. Harmony is expressed through the eye and the smile. A joyous, happy nature expresses love through harmonious action, for where there is harmony and happiness there is love. In our study of metaphysics we do not go to extremes, we take the middle course. We do not deny the reality of matter, for while we are in the physical body we are on the plane of form. We must recognize the physical or material as well as the metaphysical or spiritual.

"Ignorance is the basis of all error, the absence of divine law. Sin is error and can be banished by divine love."

The subject of the lecture for Sunday, February 9th, is: "Are Thoughts Things?" This will be preceded by a reading from the text book used by the priests of Northern Buddhism, "The Awakening of Faith in the Mahayana," the meaning of Mahayana being The Greater Vehicle.

SACRAMENTO, Cal. — It will be impossible to get work started on the capitol extension buildings before Jan. 1, 1920. This date, according to members of the state board of control, will be the very earliest that could be hoped under the most propitious circumstances. Weeks and days, San Francisco architects who won the competition for the plans, were instructed by the board of control, immediately after the signing of the armistice, to proceed at once with the preparation of the detail working plans. Both men, prior to that time, had been in war service. Their plans cannot be ready before September 1st. Bids must then be advertised for thirty days. Contractors will require from 60 to 90 days to figure the specifications and make their bids. The board of control and the state engineering department then go over the figures, before the bid can be awarded. Thus it will be more than a year before the contractor can possibly have the men on the ground. The financing of the project, however, presents another serious problem. Two years ago California voted a $3,000,000 bond issue to pay for the buildings. Since that time building costs have advanced more than 20 per cent. and the bond market has slumped. According to State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson the 4 per cent. building bonds would probably not bring more than 92 on the market. Thus the low interest bearing bonds would bring $2,760,000 and the building that would have cost $3,000,000 two years ago would cost $3,600,000 today, leaving $840,000 to be made up, either by additional appropriations, or by altering the plans to provide cheaper or smaller buildings.

Mesdames Minnie Patterson and George Lyons of Riverdale Drive will be dinner guests of Mrs. T. R. Gifford of Pasadena on Thursday.

Senator Clark of Chicago and Mrs. Clark, C. L. Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Peckham motored to San Diego Saturday to enjoy the aviation circus.

Mrs. Mary Coote, for many years a resident of Glendale in early days, has been visiting old friends at Somers Farm. Mrs. Coote's home at present is in Carmel, Monterey Co.

Two relatives of John Hyde Braly, Misses Allen and Lance, of Washington, D. C., have just arrived from the east and were week-end guests in his home. They left Tuesday for Long Beach to see how they like the seashore and will look around with a view to locating somewhere in Southern California permanently.

Mrs. S. Delgado of Lomita avenue has had letters from her son, Gerald A. V. Delgado, who is with Co. C, 49th R. F. C., which stated that he was leaving Orleans, but did not know his destination, whether it would be Belgium or Alsace Lorraine. He is longing to come home, but says nothing about his personal experiences in the war.

Mrs. E. U. Emery reports that the last letter she received from her son, Sergeant Owen Emery, was dated from Broven, Belgium, December 26th. He said orders had been received to move to Le Mans on the 28th to receive their equipment for overseas, so the Emery family is living in expectation of receiving a dispatch any moment announcing his arrival in New York.

Letters have been received from the Todd boys by Mr. and Mrs. John Todd this week which state that they are still in Germany and do not know how long they will be there. Weather conditions are rather uncomfortable as they have had rain and snow. The fact that the 91st Division is supposed to sail by the 20th encourages the Todds to look for their soldier boys this month.

LeRoy Beddoe, brother of Elder Beddoe, received his discharge from the medical service in Camp Kearny and returned to Glendale the early part of January. He has resumed his work as a nurse in the Glendale Sanitarium. He was in charge of the laboratory at Camp Kearny and says the army experience was worth a great deal to him. He had the rank of Acting Sergeant when he was discharged.

Attorney Earl Patterson, son of Mrs. Minnie Patterson of Riverside Drive, received his discharge from the Aviation Service in Camp Taylor and after visiting relatives in Philadelphia came home, arriving about a week ago. Since then he has spent a week-end at Rockwell Field, San Diego, where he first entered the service. He has resumed his law practice in Los Angeles as a partner of Mr. Moote.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weston welcomed a fourth son to their home last Saturday afternoon. He weighed eight pounds and gives every promise of developing into a sturdy youngster. They were so confident he would be a girl that they had quite a list of choice feminine names prepared from which to make a selection, but none for sister's brother. In consequence, the young man to date belongs to the no-name series, but his parents say they will put him into another class very soon. Mrs. Weston is doing finely.

Dr. Eldridge Ray Morlan, son of Mrs. J. H. Morlan of 361-W. Harvard, has returned to his work in the Southern Pacific Hospital in San Francisco. He entered the army medical service and was taking an internship when the armistice was signed. Later he suffered from influenza and was given a furlough which he spent here in recuperation. His brother, Seymour Morlan, of Vine street, who also had influenza and returned to work too soon thereafter, has had to take a lay-off and has gone with his wife to Arroyo Grande for a vacation. He expects to be gone about three weeks.

Mrs. Frank Proctor of 1135 East Wilson avenue, recently had a letter from her son, Ralph Proctor, dated January 12th, in which he said his company had been moved about one hundred miles back from the battle front and the latest rumors in regard to their return were that they would leave France about the 20th of February. He writes that they are comfortably housed in large barracks with a stove in each end, but that it is cold and rains nearly every day making a great deal of mud. There is not much doing in the camp and the boys will be very glad to start for home. He and his comrades are very well and there has been no influenza there.

Fred Dodge has been named as general manager of the Senior Dance which has been announced for next Friday night at Masonic Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hubbard and infant son of Rockford, Iowa, are visiting with Mr. Hubbard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hubbard, of 511 E. Wilson, Glendale.

Miller Fishel, recently returned from the A. E. F., and Gilbert A. Cowan, who was with the army in the United States, spoke to the Glendale Union High School Forum this afternoon on war experiences.

Ensign E. S. Shields, of West Chester, Pa., who has been recuperating for some weeks in California after strenuous service in the hydro-airplane service on the Atlantic Coast, has been visiting his great uncle, Mr. Ellwood Townsend, at Somers Farm.

The Colorado Boulevard P.-T. A. will hold its regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 6th, at 3:15, sharp. Speakers of the afternoon are Mrs. Kurtz, legislative chairman of Glendale Federated P.-T. A., and Assemblyman John Robert White. Come and bring a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bott, of 603 West Broadway, received a letter Friday from their son, Asa Bott, of the 23d Engineers. It was written Christmas Eve, acknowledged his pleasure in the receipt of his Christmas package, and said he expected to be in Germany before the first of the year. He was very anxious to get home, but had received no intimation when he would be sent. He wrote he was well as could be and was receiving fine treatment, that he didn't know what the boys there would do were it not for the comfort and entertainment given them by the Y. M. C. A.

EVENTS AT KELLER SCHOOL

A series of dances in February at the ballroom of the Keller School of Dancing on Brand boulevard, have been announced by Mrs. Pearl Keller. The first will be given Saturday night, February 8th.

The following week the Friday night dancing class, which is composed of the younger society set will substitute a St. Valentine's dance for their regular lesson. There will be a post-office for the distribution of valentines and other things suggestive of the beloved saint.

On Washington's Birthday, February 22d, will be given a big dance for which Bush's orchestra has been engaged, one of the finest organizations for the playing of dance music in this part of the country.

Mrs. Keller also announces a beginning class next Tuesday evening for the older married set who dance and who have importuned her for a chance to learn the new dances. From present indications it will be one of her largest, most popular classes.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Home Service Department of the American Red Cross is working with the District Officers of the Federal Board of Vocational Education in the interest of disabled soldiers and sailors. Home Service sections in the Pacific Division are lending valuable assistance to the men and their families by maintaining the morale of the family and sustaining the man's purpose to take vocational training; by helping to persuade the man and his family of the value of such training, when necessary, and in special instances by supervising the handling of cases not yet eligible for vocational training, but which may become so.

Police and Fire Departments in cities in California, Nevada and Arizona are being urged to take up the study of First Aid, under the auspices of the Chapters of the American Red Cross. A special Police and Firemen's Edition of First Aid Text Books has been published by the Red Cross and has been sent to all Red Cross Chapters in the Division.

NOTICE TO WAR RELIEF COMMITTEE

MRS. A. W. BEACH,

Terrible conditions in China and other parts of the Orient which have resulted from vast quantities of liquor imported into those countries from the United States and England were described and appeals from Africa where the drink habit is being fastened upon helpless natives who have developed the vice to such an extent that men are pawning their wives and children for spirits.

The speaker declared that the rum shipments from Boston during the war increased from one million gallons to five millions and that two millions of it went to England; that Lord Kitchener and Lord Roberts had in their time plead with the British government to abolish the liquor canteen in the army and instead the government had established it as a part of the soldiers' rations and introduced the habit among colonials temperate before.

He referred also to the action taken at Brussels in 1895 abolishing the slave trade and putting prohibition in effect in Central Africa and to the conference held in Edinburgh in 1910, when an inventory of the native tribes of Africa was taken and the liquor traffic in Central Africa was re-established.

"If we do not win in this great drive," he said, "it will be of no use to send the Gospel. We will be too late."

"What will be the use of establishing the democracy of the world? We have inherited so much degeneracy from the past it will have a hard time to maintain itself in the world. Democracy sprang up often in the past only to go down when the people degenerated.

"All these killings we have are but the convulsions of the disease. If we do not kill the disease, the race will perish. The great question of our day is how to permanently restore the human race to harmony with nature, to cut the millstone of degeneracy from the neck of the race."

He paid a high tribute to the soldiers of the United States and to their accomplishments when pitted against the Prussian Guard, whose brutal instincts had been stimulated in every way calculated to make them efficient in battle, and showed how they crumpled up when opposed by clean men who went into action with no rum ration. He declared it would be shown that the war record of our American men had never been exceeded by any troops at any time in the world's history.

In closing, he said: "You never thought it possible to put prohibition into the constitution. It has been put there. We need an expanded man power and with it we will put prohibition into the constitution of the world. We will win. The call is to America to supply that expanded man power. This is a supreme call, for five years. If it is not finished up then we will ask you to re-enlist."

Pledge cards providing for monthly subscriptions to support the movement ranging from $100 to 33c were then circulated among the audience and largely subscribed, many accompanying their pledges with checks.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS KEEP YOUR INSURANCE

Government Conversion Tables are now ready for you to use in converting your original term contracts into permanent whole life, twenty payment or endowment contracts. Do not allow any person to persuade you to discontinue your insurance.

Your insurance contract is a value asset.

MAINTAIN IT.

I will be glad to assist you in making the conversion.

The reasons why I am using this space are: Returning soldiers and sailors are being told things they do not understand, a lot of which is not even true, relative to the costs and methods of converting their insurance, and I consider it my duty to the government and to the men to place my knowledge of insurance and its many-sided service to the economic life of the individual and nation at their disposal.

For the prudent person prepares to perpetuate payments to his posterity, and life insurance does just that.

If I may so serve one soldier or sailor, the purpose of this advertisement has been fully served.

GOVERNMENT SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' INSURANCE

Rates for Permanent Soldiers' Policies Announced

The rates for the conversion of the one year renewable term contracts of insurance issued by the government for soldiers and sailors, have been announced in Information Bulletin No. 1 by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance under date of February 1, 1919.

At any time during the first period of five years from the date of issue of these term policies they may be converted without medical examination into any one of several forms: Ordinary Life, 20 Payment Life, etc., but if the term policies are to be converted as above the conversion must take place during the five year period. The forms mentioned in the bulletin will be the only ones written. All policies are non-taxable, incontestable and non-assignable. All these policies are payable in the event of death, only in 240 monthly installments.

The rates are net rates, based on the American experience table of mortality with interest at 3 1/2%. All expenses of the Bureau are paid by the government, thereby permitting the net rate. This means that the monthly net rate will average 15% below a similar rate in participating private companies.

Policies will contain a waiver of premiums and total disability clause.

COUNTING IN MILLIONS

That the day of counting in anything less than millions has passed is shown by a report just issued by the Salvation Army which shows the work which the organization has done in this country in the past ten years.

In this period 5,486,022 poor people were given temporary relief; 33,925,189 nights' shelter and beds were given to needy poor; 43,624,844 meals were supplied to men and women who actually needed them; 120,885,963 persons are estimated to have attended in-door meetings.

Other interesting features of the report show that 12,350 children were cared for in rescue homes; 18,355 women and girls cared for in these same homes; 152,815 men cared for in industrial homes; 30,162 tons of coal distributed; 298,405 poor families visited and 771,726 jobs found for unemployed poor.

SACRAMENTO, Cal. — Genealogists of the future will have a soft snap if a bill proposed by Assemblyman Ambrose of Los Angeles is passed in the next session of the legislature. ### WAR CRISIS DEVELOPED MANY DRAMATIC PHRASES

The war has developed many dramatic phrases, slogans, terse epigrams or laconic statements. Looking back over the perspective of four years of fighting it appears that the majority of these grew out of tense crises in battles or marked historic moments when the fate of nations hung in the balance.

Take for example the slogan, "They shall not pass." During the tremendous fighting in front of Verdun when the Germans made their great, desperate drive to break through the French battle lines in 1916 this saying passed from lip to lip among the French soldiers gathered there in a long-drawn battle to check the terrific onslaught of the Germans. How it originated is not clear. Some have attributed it to Marshal Joffre, others to Marshal Pétain, who was in command of the French fighting forces at Verdun. Others believe the saying originated with the men in the ranks. At any event they adopted it and for months while the Germans vainly threw their battalions upon the stubbornly defended forts around the French city, the saying, "They shall not pass," became the watchword at Verdun. And they did not pass.

To Americans the sententious utterance of General Pershing when he placed a wreath on the tomb of Lafayette in the Picpus cemetery in Paris conveyed a significance and an inspiration. "Lafayette, we are here," was all he said, but to the American as well as to the Frenchman it was better than oratory. It meant to the American, "We are here for business, and our business is to fight." It thrilled the hearts of General Pershing's people at home, and the modesty of it filled them with a glow of satisfaction.

Another dramatic phrase which stirred the patriotism of the American people was that attributed to an American commander at Chateau Thierry when he responded to the advice of French commanders to retreat by declaring: "We are going to counter-attack." These statements have been attributed to both Maj.-Gen. Robert L. Bullard and to Maj.-Gen. Omar Bundy. Some observers have regarded this incident as the turning point of the war. From that time the Americans advanced. The victory of Chateau Thierry followed and thereafter the German army retreated.

Vice-Admiral William S. Sims, commanding the American naval forces in European waters, was asked when the first Yankee warships arrived in England early in May, 1917, "When will you be ready for business?" He replied, "We can start at once. We made our preparations on the way over."

There was a dramatic moment, a great crisis in the world's history when General Pershing placed the American army under the command of the then General Foch, who had just been made commander of all the allied forces, but none of the phrases that General Pershing used were widely quoted as epigrammatic. One which might so have been selected was the words, "Infantry, artillery, aviation, all that we have are yours."

Dispose of it as you may desire."

The retort of Major Charles Whitely, commander of the "lost battalion" of the American army in the Argonne forest, when the Germans surrounded his isolated command and their commander demanded its surrender was one of the war's historic phrases. "Go to hell," he replied.

The first great battle of the war, the battle that stopped the Germans at the Marne, elicited from the lips of Marshal Joffre the historic words: "The hour has come to advance at all costs; to die where you stand rather than to give way."

General Pétain, afterwards marshal, inspired his weary troops at Verdun by an order of the day, concluding with the words: "Courage, we will get them."

General Foch, commanding the French army in the first battle of the Marne, had been almost overwhelmed by the onward sweep of the German forces. In a memorable message to Joffre he said: "My right is crushed. My left is in retreat. I am attacking with my center." He did attack and drove a wedge through the German lines that started their retreat to the Aisne.

The people of Paris were stunned by the rapidity with which the Germans advanced in their first rush toward the French capital. The railway stations were besieged, but the great majority of the people knew they must remain. In this tragic moment General Gallieni, military commander of the city, inspired confidence and cheered the faint-hearted with his watchword, "Jusqua bout," or "To the very end." The populace took up the cry and Gallieni with his army played a signal part in hurling back the legions of Von Kluck at the Marne.

No less inspiring but born of less tragic circumstances was the saying of General Gouraud, who, upon entering Strassburg after the liberation of Alsace and Lorraine, declared: "The day of glory has come."

Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, commander-in-chief of the British armies in France, gave utterance to an appeal in addressing his soldiers which stirred a responsive chord in the hearts of the allied peoples throughout the world. For three weeks the enemy had battered the lines in a desperate effort to separate them from the French and drive through to the channel ports. Day after day the British had been driven back. On April 13, 1918, Marshal

Haig called upon his men for one last effort. "Every position must be held to the last man," he ordered. "There must be no retirement. With our backs to the wall and believing in the justice of our cause, everyone of us must fight to the end."

When Vice-Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss went to tell the German commander of the naval terms of the armistice one of the Teuton admirals said: "It is inadmissible that our fleet should be given up without having been beaten."

"It had only to come out," was the laconic retort of Admiral Wemyss. Later when the surrendering German warships were escorted by the British fleet into British waters, Vice-Admiral Beatty's historic signal, after the enemy fleet had been moored, read: "The German flag is to be hauled down at 3:57 and is not to be hoisted again without permission."

Premier Venizelos, spurning the German ambassador's invitation to side with the central powers, when Monastir and a part of Serbia was offered to Greece as a German bribe, replied: "You ask me to dishonor my signature, to dishonor my country and to violate its obligations toward Serbia and, as remuneration, you offer one part of the corpse of that which I am expected to kill. My country, sir, is too little to commit so great an infamy."

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—The Los Angeles business community advises against ambitious young men entering the scavenger business in Los Angeles. H. L. Murphy, manager of the Pacific Reduction Company, announced the "quality and quantity" of garbage from Los Angeles kitchens has decreased 25 per cent. in the last year.
